Estado y Nación al final de los imperios ibéricos (Spanish Edition) Joao Paulo Pimenta

Los estudios sobre «la cuestión nacional» tienen un interés creciente dentro de la historiografía actual y trascienden las fronteras de la disciplina, ya que cruzan antropología, lingüística, estudios culturales e historia.

Este libro intenta dar cuenta del proceso simbólico de disolución de los imperios ibéricos en América y los primeros esbozos de lo que luego serán los estados nacionales modernos en la región (Argentina, Brasil y Uruguay). En un período de transición, en el cual los imperios aún no habían desaparecido por completo del horizonte político, pero tampoco emergía con claridad un nuevo modo de representación, se analizan aquí los mecanismos específicos de superación del Antiguo Régimen atendiendo no solo a las rupturas, sino también a las continuidades en relación al viejo orden, ambas igualmente cruciales y necesarias para la consolidación de las naciones americanas.
