Many parents feel frustrated and a real disconnect with their teens. Briana and Angela Haynes understand those feelings and provide great insight into loving and leading teens. While it may be tempting to step aside from parenting and avoid conflict, the authors encourage parents to do the hard things. This book engages the hearts of parents by providing ideas for how they can stay connected to their teens. Topics include: words of power not pain, building identity, learning to listen, setting healthy boundaries, and the importance of home. The ultimate goal is to pass on a legacy of faith in God and strengthen the family relationship.
