Entre mujeres solas (Spanish Edition) Cesare Pavese

Publicada en 1949 junto con otras dos novelas cortas, Entre mujeres solas significó para Pavese el salto al éxito de crítica y público. En sus páginas se cuenta la historia de Clelia, una mujer madura, fría y bregada, que deja Roma y llega de vuelta a Turín, su ciudad natal, para abrir una tienda de modas. Su negocio la obliga a frecuentar la alta burguesía de la ciudad y a asistir como testigo a los viajes extravagantes, a los amores cansados y a los intentos de suicidio de unos jóvenes que ya no saben qué pedir a la vida.

El brillo de los salones contrasta con las calles de la periferia donde Clelia pasó su infancia. Ahí quedan unos pocos conocidos, figuras patéticas que hacen de triste contrapunto al esnobismo burgués e intelectual de los que pasean por las avenidas del centro. Y la niebla, esa niebla turinesa que todo lo envuelve, cubre la desesperación de cada cual para que ciudad y ciudadanos sigan pareciendo tan honrados, laboriosos y discretos como manda la tradición.
