Make All Things New: Stories of Healing, Reconciliation, and Peace Caroline Westerhoff

Written with grace and sensitivity, Make All Things New is a collection of fourteen essays that focus on the themes of healing, peace, and reconciliation – topics as timely today as they have ever been. Well-known Anglican writer and preacher John Westerhoff, the husband of the author, has written the introduction.

Each essay closes with questions for reflection and a brief prayer, making this book an excellent resource for parish study.
