Transform Your Life Series Book 1

There are three powerful benefits a believer understands, receives and applies to his or her life, which can allow the person to operate extraordinarily. These virtues are called, “grace”, “favor” and “honor”. These can allow a person to put in less effort and achieve more financially, materially, romantically, spiritually and so forth.

God’s grace and favor can make anything possible in the life of a believer. For example, by his grace we prosper, receive salvation, are healthy, find our destinies, connect with our spouses, bear good fruits, perform extraordinary works and are gifted and talented.

Understanding the power in these virtues can transform your life.
