Should I Speak In Tongues Gerald Davis

A pastor and Bible teacher with more than five decades of experience, Gerald Davis sets out to answer this question: Should I Speak in Tongues? "My effort in this writing is for the purpose of showing believers in Jesus Christ the benefits of exercising the use of one of the listed gifts in 1 Corinthians 12, that of speaking in tongues, and also to provide some thoughts that will help bring the church body into harmony on this matter." Gerald Davis. Speaking in tongues is not just a doctrinal or religious thing to do. It has powerful, positive benefits for every believer. It is an invaluable tool for walking in the freedom "wherewith Christ hath made us free" (Galatians 5:1). The natural mind cannot comprehend the things of God, so He gave believers the gift of tongues, that we might adequately and appropriately communicate with Him. More than any other aspect of the Christian life, speaking in tongues will radically change and manifest your future destiny in God.
