Through Blood & Fire: Selected Civil War Papers of Major General Joshua Chamberlain Mark Nesbitt

Best remembered for his outstanding leadership at Gettysburg, Major General Joshua Chamberlain wrote letters of recommendation to his superiors, letters of condolence to the families of soldiers killed while under his command, and letters to his family at home. All are well written, revealing the professor's educated background and elegant prose. Nesbitt's notes set the scene, place Chamberlain's writings within the larger context of the war, and make clear the General's sterling character and his sacrifices for the country he loved. Includes all of Chamberlain's known wartime letters, revealing his transformation from a respected college professor at Bowdoin College in Maine to Major General.
