El Idilio De Un Enfermo (Spanish Edition) Armando Palacio Valdés

A mi hijo. Con grata sorpresa pude averiguar que algunas de las obras que he lanzado a la publicidad estaban agotadas y otras a punto de estarlo. Fue pasión incontrastable de mi ánimo, no esperanza de lucro o de gloria, la que me arrastró a novelar en esta edad tan poco feliz para las musas. Desde que, recién salido de las aulas, entregué mis primeras cuartillas a la imprenta, vi claramente que no era ésa la vía para lograr los halagos de la vanidad ni los regalos del cuerpo. Nuestra nación se halla desde hace algunos años con disposición indiferente, más bien hostil, hacia todas las manifestaciones del espíritu. La pasión de lo útil, un sensualismo omnipotente, invade a la sociedad española, y muy singularmente a esa clase media que en la primera mitad del siglo tantas y tan gallardas muestras dio de su amor a lo justo y a lo bello. La juventud, de quien suelen partir los impulsos generosos, los anhelos espirituales, no se ocupa actualmente sino en abrirse paso a codazos para llegar al poder, a la influencia, a la comodidad. Mi padre me decía que, en su tiempo, viendo un joven errar solitario con un libro entre las manos, se podía apostar a que este libro era de versos. El tuyo te dice que actualmente hay seguridad de que el libro es la ley municipal o un compendio de Derecho administrativo. ¿Caminamos por este sendero a la civilización y al engrandecimiento de la patria, o vamos derechos a la barbarie y al desprecio de las naciones cultas? Tú o tus hijos lo sabréis. Yo moriré antes de que se averigüe. De todos modos, a nadie se le oculta que las letras cuentan con pocos apasionados en España. La prensa periódica, en vez de difundirlas y alentarlas, contribuye no poco con su desvío a la tristeza y languidez en que vegetan. Es más; la facilidad que el primer advenedizo logra (a condición de solicitarlo) para ver sus producciones, malas o buenas, ensalzadas hasta las nubes, demuestra mejor aún el desdén con que se miran
