A passion neither can forget. . .

When Devon McAteer, the most talented running back in the NFL, is put on probation after an uncharacteristic blow up, the team owner saddles him with sexy Jada Green, a staff counselor. Immediately, desire and a bit of something more spark between the pair, but the timing isn't right. Devon has decided to quit the team to become an architect, and Jada has already committed herself to someone else. The pair decides to follow separate paths.

Years later, when tragedy touches Jada's life, she is possessed by a seemingly unending and dangerous grief. But a magical and quite inexplicable experience leads her back to the man who makes her believe in love again: Devon, The Builder.
