'The Easy Way to Advance Your Drumming'

A whole course helping you to develop your drumming skills in one book!

Book 2 in the Easy Drum Book Series, this book is designed for the drummer who wants to take their playing to a higher level. It is written in the same clear and understandable manner as Book 1 ('The Really Easy Way to Play the Drums') and will deliver great results for any person willing to study and practice the knowledge within.

This ebook uses rudiments in a practical and musical way and challenges the developing drummer to really create their own ideas, their technique and their own style of playing. This book allows you the opportunity to acquire 30 years of Steve's professional playing and drum coaching techniques in one handy book.

A valuable book for any drummer who wants to advance their playing, and see great results for their efforts. Developing understanding of the structure of drumming and how it works, with a focus on Rock, Funk, Latin and Jazz styles

A Personal Note From The Author:

This drum book is the result of my 30 years experience as a drumming coach and teacher. It helps thousands of students learn to successfully play the drums, using the practical knowledge gained from my career as an International professional drummer.

It will guide you through the most important aspects of learning drums and help you clearly understand how drumming works. It is my intention to share my skills and experience with you to become the confident and satisfied drummer that I know is possible.

Enjoy the journey!

Steve
