Sandrus, un satanico angelo custode (Italian Edition) Sergio Casagrande

Sandrus è un vecchio angelo sui settant'anni, stravagante e dallo schietto parlare. Un angelo custode senza filtri inibitori e ben lontano dagli stereotipi cui siamo stati abituati da sempre. Appare all'improvviso a Principe, che ha appena esalato, in un certo senso non troppo dispiaciuto, il suo ultimo respiro. Principe nella sua nuova e insolita condizione non può più vedere (sente solo qualche parola appena defunto) chi gli sta attorno, ma viene tenuto al corrente degli avvenimenti sino al momento della sepoltura dal suo custode, che vede e ode per lui. Sandrus lo illumina, lo tiene quasi per mano, risponde alle domande (talvolta bruscamente) su quanto è accaduto e accade sulla Terra e nell'alto dei Cieli. Ironia e seri spunti di riflessione si alternano dando luogo a finestre che si aprono e si chiudono, a volte lunghe, come le vicissitudini (raccontate in prima persona) di Francesco d'Assisi e Chiara, la storia d'amore di padre Elio e sorella Lidia o le tribolazioni dell'orfanella Caterina, altre volte brevi, scorci di vita di personaggi sconosciuti, di un mondo animale e vegetale, che nell'insieme danno fiato e tempo al romanzo. Tutto ciò è apparentemente sganciato dal filone iniziale, ma queste altro non sono che speranze, dubbi e verità nascoste che investono Principe, e in prospettiva tutti noi, attori della vita. Fiabe e storie vere, leggende e realtà, spruzzate sì da comicità, ma in una visione di profonda ricerca dell'amore che non va mai perduto.
