The History of Herodotus - Volume 1 Herodotus

The History of Herodotus is now considered to be the founding work of history in Western literature. Written from the 450s to the 420s BC in the Ionic dialect of classical Greek, The History serves as a record of the ancient traditions, politics, geography, and clashes of various cultures that were known in Western Asia, Northern Africa and Greece at that time. Moreover, it established without precedent the genre and study of history in the Western world..

It stands as one of the first accounts of the rise of the Persian Empire, and the events of the Greco-Persian Wars between the Achaemenid Empire and the Greek city-states in the 5th century BC. Herodotus portrays the conflict as one between the forces of slavery (the Persians) on the one hand, and freedom (the Athenians and the confederacy of Greek city-states which united against the invaders) on the other.
