It started out as a joke: a werewolf entering a dog show. Adele Chase has always believed herself ugly, with her doggish wolf form and non-shifter blue eyes. But in the show ring she's discovered a place where she can be beautiful.

Now, poised on the brink of her biggest win, nothing can deter her--not even the presence of Bowie, the notorious werewolf hunter. He's stalking the show in search of a werewolf and found what he thinks is a woman. Adele realizes he could be her destined mate--or, if he uncovers her secret, her death.

With Best in Show within her reach, she plays a dangerous game with a man who might either love her or kill her...with neither aware of the enemy who's out to destroy them both.
