Daniel no habla (Novela) (Spanish Edition) Marti Leimbach

Daniel no habla es una apasionante y conmovedora novela que explora la determinación de una madre por ayudar a su hijo. Una historia de amor profunda, que extiende su sabiduría más allá de las limitaciones de la discapacidad y se sumerge en la esencia de la naturaleza humana. Una vibrante novela, llena de ironía y coraje, que arranca una sonrisa a la vez que encoge el corazón. La autora de Elegir un amor nos ofrece una historia que toca la fibra sensible hasta lo más profundo. Una luminosa mirada llena de ternura, amor y sufrimiento, pero sobre todo, una luminosa mirada a la esperanza. “Los lectores de Daniel no habla no viajarán a la inevitable complejidad que envuelve a la mayoría de los niños discapacitados que crecen entre adultos. En su lugar, la autora nos pone cara a cara con las dificultades de criar a un niño autista en sus primeras etapas, centrándose en la vida interior de una madre luchadora y sus frenéticos intentos por rescatarlo. La crisis que sufre esta madre y su posterior recuperación, impulsada en gran parte por algunos importantes descubrimientos personales que suceden en las últimas páginas del libro, nos da razones para albergar la esperanza, enfrentarnos a lo que tenga que suceder, y para que otras madres como ella puedan controlar la forma de elegir su camino.” The Washington Post
