Uma garota surge de repente no caminho da adolescente Piddy Sanchez para avisá-la de que Yaqui Delgado vai acabar com ela. Piddy acabou de mudar de escola e nem faz ideia de quem seja Yaqui, muito menos do que pode ter feito de tão errado para apanhar. Mas Yaqui sabe quem ela é, e a odeia.

Piddy Sanchez não tem descanso. Ser filha de uma imigrante cubana nos Estados Unidos e crescer sem pai já era bem difícil sem ter alguém a odiando. No ensino médio da nova escola, seu corpo atraente desperta tanto os olhares dos meninos quanto o da esquentada Yaqui, que começa atacando a novata com ameaças cruéis, mas demonstra ser capaz de muito mais que isso, tornando a vida de Piddy um verdadeiro inferno dominado pelo medo. Denunciar Yaqui não é uma opção. Fugir não adianta. O importante agora é sobreviver.

O romance explora a questão do bullying nas escolas e fala de violência doméstica, assuntos que vêm sendo cada vez mais discutidos atualmente, por afetar muitas crianças e adolescentes.
