Since the murder of her husband two years prior, all Devin Avery has wanted is normalcy in her life for the sake of her twin daughters. But the feeling of being followed won't go away. When she receives a letter from a mysterious woman claiming to be her husband's first wife, she must take a chance at getting to the bottom of her worries.

After doing his sister's dirty bidding and spying on Devin Avery, Spark guiltily befriends her and makes the mistake of falling in love. Now, between a rock and a hard place, he must decide between a family member he despises and a love like he's never known. Should he help Devin get to the truth of her husband's death when it could mean losing her forever?
